Shane Beamer begins his fifth season guiding the Gamecocks in 2025. He has won more games through four seasons at Carolina than any other coach. Nine of his 10 on-field assistant coaches return from the staff that led Carolina to a nine-win season in 2024. The only newcomer is offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach Mike Shula, who was promoted from an analyst role.

65

THE GAMECOCKS

South Carolina returns 37 letterwinners, including nine starters from the 2024 squad. The offense returns five starters including a Heisman Trophy candidate in quarterback LaNorris Sellers and 2024 Freshman All-American left tackle Josiah Thompson. The four returning starters on defense is highlighted by 2024 Freshman All-American Edge rusher Dylan Stewart.

2024 IN REVIEW

After splitting their first six games evenly, the Gamecocks became one of the nation's hottest teams over the second half of the season, winning each of their final six regular season contests, including wins over four ranked teams to finish the season with a 9-4 record and ranked 19th in the final national polls.

123

RECORDS

LaNorris Sellers had a record-setting freshman season at South Carolina in 2024, while fifth-year punter Kai Kroeger shattered several school records in earning All-America honors.

145

HISTORY

The Gamecocks have a long and storied history. Kyle Kennard became the school's first recipient of the Nagurski Award, presented to the nation's top defensive player. 199

BOWL GAMES

South Carolina appeared in a post-season bowl game for the third time in four seasons under Shane Beamer. The Gamecocks have celebrated a victory in six of their last 10 bowl games, defeating Nebraska (2012 Capital One), Michigan (2013 and 2018 Outback), Wisconsin (2014 Capital One), Miami (Fla.) (2014 Independence) and North Carolina (2021 Duke's Mayo) during that stretch.

WELCOME TO WILLIAMS-BRICE

Built during the Great Depression with help from federal Works Progress Administration (WPA) funds, the stadium was completed in 1934 and was known as Carolina Municipal Stadium. The original seating was 17,600 and included seating along the sidelines only.

During the 1940s and 1950s, endzone seating was added which turned the stadium into a bowl and increased capacity to over 40,000.

Martha Williams-Brice's husband, Thomas H. Brice, was a Gamecock football letterman from 1922-24, and her family operated the Williams Furniture Company in Sumter. She left a substantial inheritance from the furniture fortune to her nephews, Thomas W. and Philip L. Edwards, much of which they passed on to the University of South Carolina. That included a bequest from her estate for stadium renovations in the early 1970s which included the addition of over 14,000 seats, an Astroturf playing surface and a west upper deck. This brought the seat count up to 54,000. The name was officially changed from Carolina Stadium to Williams-Brice Stadium in dedication ceremonies during the Sept. 9, 1972 opener with Virginia.

The east upper deck was added in 1982 and capacity grew to 72,400.

In the 1990s, the Kay and Eddie Floyd Building was added behind the north endzone and suites, clubs and a new press box were added on the west side. This was quickly followed by a south upper deck which increased total seat count to over 80,000.

Added in 2012 was a $6.5 million state-of-the-art videoboard that sits above the north stands. It measures 36' x 124'.

In 2015, the $14.5 million Springs Brooks Plaza transformed the circumference of Williams-Brice Stadium into an aesthetically-pleasing footprint.

Nickname: The Fighting Gamecocks

The University of South Carolina is the only major college athletic program in the country that uses "Fighting Gamecocks" as its official nickname and mascot. The University's athletic teams have been known as Gamecocks since the early 1900s.

At the turn of the 20th century, after struggling for more than decade under numerous nicknames, the school's football team was the impetus of the new moniker. In 1903, Columbia's morning newspaper, The State, shortened the name to one word and Carolina teams have been Gamecocks ever since.

Those early teams must have been a feisty and spirited group. A gamecock is a fighting rooster known for its spirit and courage. A cock fight, which was a popular sport throughout the United States in the 19th century, would last until the death of one of the combatants. Cock fighting has been outlawed by most states for humanitarian reasons, but it is still held surreptitiously in many areas.

The South Carolina Mascot

The State of South Carolina has long been closely connected with the breeding and training of fighting gamecocks. General Thomas Sumter, famed guerrilla fighter of the Revolutionary War, was known as "The Fighting Gamecock."

Beginning in 1971, John Nelson, an undergraduate biology student, began attending games in a Gamecock costume. He was known as "The Rooster". This evolved to Big Spur, who appeared during the 1970s and was a bit intimidating.

At the 1980 Homecoming game, the current version of Cocky, by Robert Lane, made his debut as Big Spur's son. Cocky became the University of South Carolina's official mascot after this appearance and has maintained this role ever since.

Cocky soon won the hearts of Gamecock fans and is one of the most recognizable figures in college athletics. In 1986, he was chosen as America's First "National Mascot" by the Universal Cheerleading Association, Ford Motor Company and American Airlines.

That same year, Cocky brought home his first UCA Mascot Championship. He continued his success by capturing his second championship in 1994 and also won the Capital One mascot championship in 2003.

Cocky can be seen peppering the crowd up at a variety of athletics events and also makes numerous community service appearances throughout the year.

Sir Big Spur

Sir Big Spur, is the official live mascot of the Gamecock Athletics. Sir Big Spur is an Old English Black Breasted Red Gamecock. He debuted in 1999 at a Carolina baseball game and his first game at Williams-Brice Stadium was in 2006. He can now be seen at all home football games, various baseball games and other events supporting the Gamecocks.

"2001"

The South Carolina Gamecocks feature perhaps the most unique and electrifying pregame entry in all of college football. In fact, Sporting News rated USC's "2001" as the most exciting pregame entry in all of college football. As the minutes wind down on the game clock prior to the opening kickoff, the Gamecocks leave the locker room following final pregame instruction from their coaching staff and assemble in the tunnel in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium. Then, as the crowd of nearly 80,000 begins its roar of anticipation, the first notes of the theme song from "2001-A Space Odyssey" blare over the stadium sound system. As the music continues, the enthusiasm of the crowd is feverish. Finally, at just the exact moment, in perfect coordination with the music, the Gamecocks hit the field running.

Sandstorm

Visit Williams-Brice Stadium a few hours before kickoff on any gameday and one will see a series of white towels being distributed at seats throughout the stadium. A visitor may pause and wonder upon seeing this activity but Gamecock fans know exactly why the towels are there. A sandstorm is coming...

"Sandstorm" is an instrumental piece by Finnish DJ and record producer Darude that was originally released in the late 1990s. The piece was played during the South Carolina-Ole Miss game in 2009 and was instantly embraced by the student body. Since then, it has been incorporated into football opening game festivities, is heard after football scores and is used at other sports venues as a rally cry for fans and players alike. A sequence of up and down motions are executed in unison as the music starts and these ultimately culminate in a flurry of waving white towels as the song progresses. Chants of "USC" are also repeated in rhythm with the music. What began as a celebration tune toward the end of a big game has become one of the most loved traditions at University of South Carolina athletics events.

Gamecock Walk

Approximately two hours and 20 minutes prior to every home game, the Carolina team buses drop the players off on the Garnet Way in Gamecock Park. Through a throng of Gamecock fans and well-wishers along with the Carolina Marching Band, the team walks on the Garnet Way, crosses Bluff Road and the stadium tarmac and heads to the locker room, located in the southwest corner of Williams-Brice Stadium, to prepare for the game ahead.

School Colors

Garnet and Black were adopted near the turn of the century as the official colors of the University of South Carolina athletic teams. The colors are the dominant ones on the gamecock, which is the University's official mascot.

The Cockaboose Railroad

What is perhaps the most unique form of tailgating and featured throughout the years in numerous magazines and television shows, the Cockaboose Railroad has made its way to Columbia and University of South Carolina football. Twenty-two cabooses line a railroad track just outside of Williams-Brice Stadium - but these rail cars don't move and they certainly aren't something you would see passing by on the rear end of a train.

In the late 1980s, a local businessman and his wife dreamt up a highly unique concept of combining tailgating for University of South Carolina football games with an abandoned set of railroad tracks running along the south end of the Williams-Brice Stadium property. In 1990, the beautifully-designed Cockaboose Railroad began catering to the serious Gamecock tailgater with amenities never before associated with in tailgating: running water, cable television, air conditioning, and heating, and a living room highlight each and every Cockaboose.

The Cockaboose Railroad - it's different, it's unique, and it's exciting; and there's nothing else like it in the nation.

Alma Mater: "We Hail Thee Carolina"

Set to the tune of Robert Burns' "Flow Gently, Sweet Afton", the alma mater was written in 1911 by George A. Wauchope, an English professor at the university. At the time, several songs submitted as candidates for the alma mater were collectively placed in a songbook and sung at chapel; however, Wauchope's emerged as the most popular and later became the official alma mater.

The first stanza of the alma mater is sung at all athletics events and the custom of raising one's right hand with fingers cupped as if offering a toast is visible among fans when the phrase "Here's a Health, Carolina" is sung at the end.

*We hail thee, Carolina, and sing thy high praise;
With loyal devotion, remembering the days;
When proudly we sought thee, thy children to be:
Here's a health, Carolina, forever to thee!*

Fight Song: "The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way"

The lyrics listed below comprise the official university fight song entitled "The Fighting Gamecocks Lead the Way". The song's tune is from the musical "How Now, Dow Jones" and the original song in the musical was titled "Step to the Rear". The music was chosen as the fight song by former football coach and Athletics Director, Paul Dietzel, who also wrote the lyrics. The song is played by the school band during athletics events to motivate players and inspire fans, many of whom throw a hearty fist pump when they hear "Go Cocks!" toward the end of the song.

*Hey, Let's give a cheer,
Carolina is here,
The Fighting Gamecocks lead the way.
Who gives a care,
If the going gets tough,
And when it is rough,
That's when the 'Cocks get going.*

*Hail to our colors of garnet and black,
In Carolina pride have we.
So, Go Gamecocks Go - FIGHT!
Drive for the goal - FIGHT!
USC will win today - GO COCKS!
So, let's give a cheer,
Carolina is here.
The Fighting Gamecocks All The Way!*

“We wear many hats, but the No. 1 role for the strength and conditioning coach is to serve as the executive branch of the vision Coach Beamer has for his program. We are executing that vision or projecting that vision and putting it into action every single day.”

Take it a step further.

That's the mantra that fifth-year head coach Shane Beamer has challenged his team with as they went through their winter workout, spring drills and summer regimen in preparation for the 2025 campaign.

Whether it be developing relationships and bonding with teammates, the way they train in the weight room, their approach in taking care of their bodies in the training room and in the nutrition hub, or how they handle their business away from the football operations center, Coach Beamer has pushed his troops to take it another step further in every aspect of their lives than what they did last season, knowing that just a little bit more might be the difference between a very good season and something even more special.

After a tremendous bounce-back season in 2024, one in which the Gamecocks put together a six-game winning streak to end the regular season, falling just short in their claim for a spot in the college football playoffs en route to a nine-win campaign and a top-20 national finish, expectations for Gamecock Football are at a high level both locally and nationally entering 2025.

Many of the top prognosticators have the Gamecocks penciled in as a pre-season top-15 caliber team, one that won't be able to sneak up on anyone as they did in 2024 when they entered the season well under the radar.

Coach Beamer has proven he has the chops to keep the program on an upward trajectory. With 29 wins, he eclipsed the mark set by Hall of Fame coach Steve Spurrier for most wins in his first four seasons at Carolina. Coach Beamer has recorded seven wins over top-25 teams including three wins over top-10 teams in four seasons, with both marks better than any previous coach in school history.

The playing field has certainly changed since The Head Ball Coach roamed the sidelines with the advent of the transfer portal, NIL and revenue sharing, but Coach Beamer has established a team-first culture to withstand the fluidity of roster management and has the Gamecocks poised to be a consistent threat for a playoff berth and positioned to challenge Spurrier's on-field success from a decade ago.

While the roster has its share of turnover as 39 letterwinners who finished the 2024 regular season are no longer in the program, the coaching staff remained virtually intact. The lone exception was Mike Shula being elevated to the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach after Dowell Loggains took the head coaching post at Appalachian State. Shula worked very closely with the offense last season and the transition is expected to be a seamless one.

Coach Beamer and his staff have 114 players on the roster including 37 letterwinners, 18 on the offensive side of the ball and 19 on defense. That list includes nine returning starters. The five offensive returning starters are wide receiver Nyck Harbor, right tackle Cason Henry, quarterback LaNorris Sellers, tight end Michael Smith and left tackle Josiah Thompson. The four returning defensive starters are cornerback Judge Collier, Nickel Jalon Kilgore, safety DQ Smith and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart. The Gamecocks do not return any specialists who have earned a varsity letter.

Like most teams, the Gamecocks have hit both the high school ranks and the transfer portal hard to add talent to the mix. The Gamecocks inked 26 players in the December early signing period, 25 high schoolers and one junior college transfer. Of the 26, 20 enrolled at South Carolina in January and went through spring drills. Coach Beamer and his staff supplemented that with an additional 17 players through the transfer portal, 13 of whom were on campus in the spring.

The Gamecocks will put their offensive fortunes in the capable hands of redshirt sophomore quarterback LaNorris Sellers. Sellers exploded on the scene over the last half of the 2024 season and has positioned himself as a possible Heisman Trophy candidate.

While having stellar quarterback play gives you a chance, building a formidable cast around him will go a long way in determining the Gamecocks' fortunes. The Gamecock coaches have worked diligently to build quality depth and add key pieces, either through high school recruiting or through the portal, to provide the components necessary for consistent success.

Defensively, the Gamecocks lost a lot, as five of last year's standouts were selected in the NFL Draft. While there will be a drop-off in experience, talent remains at all three levels, beginning with sophomore Edge rusher Dylan Stewart, who has already established himself as one of the nation's best. Defensive coordinator Clayton White figures to have his deepest unit yet, with the strength of the squad located in the secondary.

Second-year special teams coach Joe DeCamillis will be charged with replacing all the key components, most notably at punter following the graduation of five-year starter and two-time All-American Kai Kroeger.

Nothing comes easy in the uber-talented Southeastern Conference, and if the Gamecocks are able to reach their goals, they will have to run through another tough gauntlet of games that will test their mettle.

The season opens on the national stage with a non-conference neutral site game in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium against a program that Coach Beamer knows well, the Virginia Tech Hokies. It will mark the Gamecocks' first appearance in Atlanta since playing back-to-back games in the Georgia Dome to end the 2010 season. The Gamecocks hope it won't be their only appearance in Atlanta in 2025, as Mercedes-Benz is also the site of the SEC Championship game.

In-state FCS rival South Carolina State provides the competition in Carolina's home opener on Sept. 6, before the Gamecocks begin an eight-game gauntlet against SEC opponents.

The conference slate opens on Sept. 13 with a home game against Vanderbilt with Carolina looking for its 17th-straight win in the series. The Gamecocks' first true road game of the season is at Missouri on Sept. 20 when the Mayor's Cup will be up for grabs. A home contest versus Kentucky on Sept. 27 wraps up the season's first month.

After a bye week on Oct. 4, Carolina travels to Baton Rouge for an Oct. 11 date with the LSU Tigers. Oklahoma makes its first trip ever to Columbia on Oct. 18, followed by a visit from perennial power Alabama on Oct. 25 as the university celebrates its annual Homecoming.

The Gamecocks will try to make it another "November to Remember" when they play at Ole Miss on Nov. 1. After their second bye week, Carolina travels to College Station for a Nov. 15 date with the Texas A&M Aggies with the Bonham Trophy in the balance, which wraps up the conference slate.

Carolina's final two games of the regular season are both against in-state opponents, as Coastal Carolina comes to Columbia on Nov. 22 and Clemson visits on Nov. 29 for the annual Palmetto State showdown. The Gamecocks have never lost to Coastal and own two wins in the last three meetings over the best the ACC has to offer, including a 17-14 win in Clemson last November.

If the Gamecocks are able to answer Coach Beamer's challenge and take it a step further, Carolina Football will have much more to look forward to as 2025 comes to an end and the calendar rolls into 2026.

QUARTERBACK

While competition is one of the key pillars of Carolina Football, it would be a huge upset for someone to unseat LaNorris Sellers as the starting signal-caller when Gamecocks take the field against Virginia Tech in Atlanta on Aug. 31. Sellers, who earned third-team All-SEC honors a season ago, over the likes of Garrett Nussmeier, Arch Manning, Diego Pavia, and Carson Beck among others, was playing as well as anyone in the country over the final half of the 2024 season and is a preseason candidate for the all the major awards, including the Heisman Trophy. The competition for the number two role will be closely watched in fall camp. Talented redshirt freshman Air Noland joined the squad in the spring after a season with the national champion Ohio State Buckeyes. True freshman Cutter Woods turned some heads in the spring and the coaches love his competitive nature. With both Noland and Woods having just one spring under their belts in Mike Shula's offense, don't overlook veteran Luke Doty making a push for the backup role. Doty has started six games at quarterback in his career and won't shy away from the spotlight. Redshirt freshman Jimmy Francis rounds out the quarterback room.

RUNNING BACK

The running back room may not have a bell cow like Raheim "Rocket" Sanders, who was capable of carrying the pigskin 25 times a game, but the coaching staff likes the depth of the room. Oscar Adaway III was the starter in the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl after Sanders opted out of that contest and responded with a season-best 69 yards rushing including a 36-yard touchdown scamper. Adaway, who is in his seventh season of college football, brings plenty of game experience with 44 games under his belt. The Gamecocks are hopeful that transfer Rahsul Faison will be cleared by the NCAA. The 25-year-old Faison earned second-team All-Mountain West honors a season ago after rushing for over 1,100 yards at Utah State. The staff likes the upside of Jawarn Howell, who saw limited time in 2024 while redshirting after one season at South Carolina State. Howell rushed for over 800 yards as a true freshman at South Carolina State in 2023. Redshirt freshman Matt Fuller looks to take the next step after getting his feet wet a season ago. Newcomer Isaiah Augustave did not join the squad until summer, but the junior appeared in 22 games including seven starts at Colorado over the past two seasons and led the Buffs in rushing in 2024. Veteran Bradley Dunn leads a group of others who began their careers as walk-ons. That group includes Nathan Harris-Waynick, Larry Scott, Chase McCracken and Neil Salvage III.

WIDE RECEIVER

Of all the position groups, the wide receiver room may have received the biggest upgrade from a season ago. The much-ballyhooed freshman class, regarded by many as the best first-year receiving class to come to Columbia, will be watched closely to see who can work their way onto the field early in their career. The talented sextet of scholarship freshmen includes Malik Clark, Lex Cyrus, Jordon Gidron, Donovan Murph, Brian Rowe and Jayden Sellers. All but Murph got an early start by going through spring drills with the squad. As a group, they did not disappoint. However, several veteran pass-catchers return and will not give up their roles without a fight. That group is led by freakish athlete Nyck Harbor. Harbor, a 6-5, 235-pound specimen, did not use his world-class speed to compete on the track this spring, instead focusing on his football talents. That effort paid off, as Harbor was selected as the Most Improved Player on offense in the spring. Jared Brown is back for his second season in Columbia after being a standout at Coastal Carolina. He is capable of making plays with the ball in his hands. Mazeo Bennett Jr. ranked second on the squad and first among the wide receivers with 30 receptions a year ago as a true freshman. Vandrevius Jacobs started four games a year ago after transferring from Florida State. Luke Doty also has plenty of game experience to draw from as he moves between quarterback and receiver. Eriq Rice and Amazon Littlejohn and Jackson Repp are walk-ons who add depth.

2024 Statistics

Scoring Offense .....	30.5 (7/47)
Rushing Offense .....	184.4 (4/35)
Passing Offense .....	223.4 (11/75)
Total Offense .....	407.8 (8/45)

TIGHT END

The tight end room lost an underrated player in Joshua Simon, who led the team with 40 receptions a year ago, but returns former All-MAC performer Brady Hunt and Michael Smith, who started seven games as a true freshman a year ago. They will be joined by former Kentucky Wildcat Jordan Dingle, who logged 39 games including 21 starts over the past four seasons in Lexington. Maurice Brown II has made a name for himself on special teams. True freshman and local product Mike Tyler joined the squad in the summer. Walk-ons Lukas Vozeh and Reno Roehm round out the unit.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The Gamecocks continue to stack talent along the offensive line and several positions, notably at guard, will be determined in the fall. The two starting tackles return with Josiah Thompson on the left side and Cason Henry on the right. Thompson, who was inserted into the starting lineup in week one, earned Freshman All-America honors last season and should only get better after spending time in Luke Day's weight room. Henry has battled some injuries along the way but looks to be healthy again to begin the season. Jatavius Shivers took the bulk of the reps at right tackle in the spring and could push Henry for playing time. The middle of the line will be overhauled, with several internal candidates in the mix along with a trio of experienced transfers. The coaches liked what they saw from Boaz Stanley at the key center position. The former Troy Trojan earned the Spirit Award for the offense in the spring. Several candidates will make their case for the starting nod at the two guard positions. The top returning candidates are Tree Babalade and Trovon Baugh, both of whom had starting roles as true freshmen in 2023, along with Mar-kee Anderson. Babalade has also worked extensively at tackle. Offensive line coach Lonnie Teasley hit the portal as well, bringing in Rodney Newsom Jr. from Western Kentucky, Nick Sharpe from Wake Forest, and Nolan Hay from Incarnate Word, along with the aforementioned Stanley to stabilize the interior of the line. Shedrick Sarratt Jr. is a true freshman who impressed in the spring and has worked his way into the conversation for early playing time as well. Ryan Brubaker was on the two-deep as the backup center in 2024 but missed all of the spring with an injury. Redshirt freshman Blake Franks and true freshman Damola Ajidahun are the other scholarship players in the room, while walk-ons Chase Sweigart, Mac Walters, Parker Lawson, Campbell Vandiver and Jake Recker all return for another season with the Garnet & Black.

DEFENSIVE TACKLE

Former Gamecock standout defensive lineman and current defensive line coach, Travian Robertson, will be challenged to reconstruct the interior of the Carolina defense. The unit lost its top four players in Tonka Hemingway, T.J. Sanders, Alex Huntley and DeAndre Jules, with Hemingway and Sanders selected in the NFL Draft. Fifth-year player Nick Barrett is the leader of the group. Barrett redshirted a season ago, knowing that the team would be best served by preserving his final year. Barrett was rewarded with the South Carolina Spirit Award for the defense in the spring. Former Alabama defensive tackle Monkell Goodwine showed flashes in limited duty a year ago and figures to take on a more extensive role this season. Gabriel Brownlow-Dindy joined the squad in January after a stint at Texas A&M, leading a trio of transfers that also includes Davonte Miles from Bowling Green and Troy Pikes from Georgia Southern. All three figure to have a role in the rotation. Junior college transfer Zavion Hardy looks to take the step up to the SEC level. How quickly he can adapt will determine his playing time. Christian Ingram and Caleb Williams are a pair of true freshmen looking to showcase their skills during fall camp. Chase Kibble returns as a walk-on.

EDGE

Plenty of candidates have a chance to contribute at the Edge rush position but expect All-America candidate Dylan Stewart to be on the field when the game is in the balance. Stewart, who at 6-5 and 245 pounds, possesses great flexibility and explosiveness, was one of the nation's top freshmen performers a year ago. With additional time in the weight room, the sky is the limit for the gifted Stewart, who lived up to all the hype in his first year in the Garnet & Black. He did not take his foot off the pedal in the spring, earning the Rex Enright Defensive Player of the Spring Award. Kyle Kennard, who last season parlayed the opportunity of working on the opposite side of Stewart into a Nagurski Trophy and SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors, has taken his skills to the NFL. Several players will get a look at that role in 2025, led by returning seniors Bryan Thomas Jr. and Jatius Geer, along with junior Desmond Umeozulu. Thomas Jr., who has excellent bloodlines as his father was an NFL first-round draft pick, earned the Gamecock Toughness Award for the defense in the spring. Transfers Demon Clowney, a cousin of former Gamecock Great Jadeveon Clowney, and George Wilson Jr. join the unit. Clowney played most recently at Charlotte and is listed at 255 pounds and regarded as someone who can set the edge, while Wilson Jr., a 230-pounder who played at Campbell, is a true speed rusher. Another transfer who the Gamecock have high hopes for is Jaylen Brown, who spent a year at Missouri. However, Brown suffered a knee injury in the spring. A trio of scholarship freshmen, including Anthony Addison, Jaquavious Dodd and Kobby Sakyi-Prah, will try to impress defensive ends coach Sterling Lucas and work their way into the mix in their first season on campus.

LINEBACKERS

The linebackers room has undergone almost a complete makeover following the graduation of Debo Williams, Demetrius Knight Jr. and Bam Martin-Scott, all who logged significant playing time for the Gamecocks in 2024. The name to know is Fred "JayR" Johnson. Johnson is considered a playmaker with all the tools to be special. When asked about which freshman stood out last season, his teammates all raved about Johnson's potential and feel he could be a star in the making. A pair of transfers in Shawn Murphy from Florida State and Justin Okoronkwo from Alabama, will figures strongly into the mix and possibly start in their first season in Columbia. Murphy, a redshirt junior, and Okoronkwo, a sophomore from Munich, Germany, should get considerably playing time and will only become more productive as they become more accustomed to Clayton White's defense. Redshirt junior Jaron Willis has been a role player in the program for a couple of years and can provide a pass rush. A trio of walk-ons in Colin Bryant, Andrew Colasurdo, and Jamian Risher Jr., all have been letterwinners, provide depth at the position and could figure prominently on special teams. Four true scholarship freshmen have been added to the room including Taeshawn Alston, Donovan Darden, A.J. Holloway and Josh Smith.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

The Carolina secondary, under the guidance of Torrian Gray, continues to be a bright spot for the program. Despite losing standout All-American safety Nick Emmanwori, the secondary looks to be deep, talented and versatile with a number of players able to play multiple positions, giving Gray the opportunity to mix-and-match. The cornerback position appears to be the deepest on paper. Returning starter Judge Collier is back and looks to be the next great lockdown corner in a long line of standout defensive backs that have worn the Garnet & Black. NC State transfer Brandon Cisse made an early impression as an outstanding addition, earning Newcomer of the Spring honors for both the defense and for special teams. Vicari Swain, who has excellent ball skills, returns and is back on solid ground after a hiatus from the team this spring, while Ball State transfer Myles Norwood rounds out a quartet of corners who have significant experience at the D-I level. The starting Nickel position in Clayton White's Flex-Nickel base defense figures to be held down by two-year incumbent Jalon Kilgore. Kilgore, a post-season honors candidate, has started 22 games over the past two seasons with six interceptions, including an SEC-leading five picks a year ago. DQ Smith, who has made 34 starts over the past three seasons, by far the most on the squad, figures to remain the starter at the free safety position. Peyton Williams will get the first look at replacing Emmanwori at strong safety. Williams performed well in a backup role a season ago. Kilgore's older brother, Gerald Kilgore, and hard-hitting sophomore David Bucey figure to push for playing time at safety. Veteran Buddy Mack III has performed well on special teams. Kelvin Hunter and Jalewis Solomon are scholarship redshirt freshman who saw limited time a year ago and looking to take the next step. Zahbari Sandy has battled injuries since his arrival in Columbia. Four true freshmen joined the squad including Kendall Daniels, Jr., Chris Hatfield, Jaquel Holman and Damarcus Leach. Daniels Jr. and Hatfield are working at safety, while Holman is honing his skills at the Nickel position. Leach is cross-training at both corner and Nickel. Returning walk-ons include Jackson Burger, Landon Kurtz and Isaiah McClary, while Tony Brown, Cedric Cisse, the younger brother of Brandon Cisse, and Brandon Cunningham are freshman walk-ons who joined the squad in the summer. Cunningham could also end up on the offensive side of the ball.

2024 Statistics

Scoring Defense .....	18.1 (5/12)

PLACEKICKER

Although they took a small step back a year ago, over the past four seasons South Carolina has been one of the SEC's top field goal teams in terms of percentage. They had converted 39-of-42 attempts from 2021-2023 before hitting on just 15-of-21 a year ago. Special teams coordinator Joe DeCamillis will be tasked with keeping the Gamecocks near the top in that category, but it won't be easy. The Gamecocks do not have a kicker on the roster who has scored a point in a college football game entering the 2025 season. Redshirt freshman Mason Love came out of the spring with a slight lead as the probable starter, but the position is certainly up for grabs. He will be pushed by redshirt senior William Joyce, redshirt freshman Peyton Argent and true freshman Max Kelley. Love and Kelley are scholarship players, but Kelley comes into camp a little behind as he was not on campus for spring drills and has some catching up to do. Whoever wins the job will have to do so with a solid fall camp.

PUNTER

Gamecock fans have not seen anyone punt the ball other than Kai Kroeger since the 2019 season, as the two-time All-American was a five-year starter for Carolina. It's not easy replacing one of the school's all-time greats, but Mason Love is the odds-on-favorite to win that important role. Love was impressive throughout the spring with his distance and hang time and separated himself a bit from the competition. Challenging Love for the punting duties are the same cast of characters as in the placekicking competition with William Joyce, Peyton Argent and Max Kelley all getting a look.

KICKOFF SPECIALIST

The kickoff specialist role is wide open entering the fall with the same quartet of kickers in Mason Love, William Joyce, Peyton Argent and Max Kelley battling it out. If he doesn't win the placekicking job outright, this might be an opportunity for the true freshman Kelley to get an opportunity to get on the field.

LONG SNAPPER

Another position that is wide open entering the fall is at the deep snapper position where Coach DeCamillis is looking to replace Hunter Rogers, one of the nation's best. The Gamecocks have three long snappers on the roster. Cole Rasmussen has patiently waited his turn and figures to get the first look, but he will have to hold off a charge from true freshman Kyler Farrow, who joined the squad in January. Redshirt freshman Gunnar Yocum is also in the mix. It's possible Coach DeCamillis might choose to separate the long- and short-snapping duties between two players, but ideally, they would settle on one candidate to handle both the punt and placekicking snaps.

HOLDER

William Joyce is in the thick of the placekicking competition but is also the leader in the clubhouse coming out of the spring as the team's holder on placements, replacing Kai Kroeger, who was one of the nation's best. Should Joyce emerge as the Gamecocks' placekicker, freshman quarterback Cutter Woods and veteran tight end Brady Hunt have also gotten work at holder and are competent options available.

KICK RETURNER

As is the case every year, there are plenty of candidates who could emerge as a kick return specialist, but Coach DeCamillis knows he might have a special one in Nyck Harbor. Harbor possesses great size at 6-5 and 235 pounds and has world-class speed. If he is able to make the first man miss, it could be off to the races for this stellar athlete. Matt Fuller, who is challenging for a role in the running back room, got a look in the spring as well. He could be a candidate to fill that role, along with several freshmen looking to find a niche early in their career.

PUNT RETURNER

As is the case with kick returner, there is not a shortage of candidates who could emerge to handle the punt returning duties. Expect for defensive back Jalon Kilgore to get a long look. Kilgore is someone the coaches trust back there and also showed he can do more than just catch it, as he returned a punt 28 yards against Akron a year ago. Freshman Brian Rowe and redshirt senior Jared Brown have the quickness to make the first defender miss and could figure in the equation, as well as others.

GUNNER

Like the returner positions, the gunners on punt coverage are an integral part of special teams, with several players vying for those key roles. In the spring, Gerald Kilgore, Brandon Cisse, Nyck Harbor and Myles Norwood were four players who distinguished themselves as candidates entering fall camp.

2024 Statistics

Kickoff Returns.....	19.3 (13/84)
Kick Return Defense.....	16.7 (2/14)
Punt Returns.....	6.9 (10/80)
Punt Return Defense.....	4.0 (4/13)

QUICKLY: 2025 marks year five of the Shane Beamer Era and the 132nd season of intercollegiate football at the University of South Carolina, dating back to 1892. It is the 119th-consecutive year in which South Carolina has competed on the gridiron. The University did not field a team in either 1893 or 1906. Carolina owns an all-time record of 643-617-44, a .510 winning percentage. Since the start of the 21st century, the Gamecocks have posted a 177-135 record, a .567 winning clip. Under Coach Beamer, the Gamecocks are 29-22, a .569 winning clip.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The 2025 season will mark South Carolina's 34th year in the Southeastern Conference. South Carolina and Arkansas joined the SEC prior to the 1992 campaign. The Gamecocks earned the SEC Eastern Division title in the 2010 season. The Gamecocks are 114-151-1 (.430) all-time in SEC regular season play but posted a 42-38 (.525) record in conference action from 2010-19.

LET'S GET THIS PARTY STARTED: The 2025 edition of South Carolina Football will officially report to fall camp on Thursday, July 31, with the first practice scheduled for the following day, Friday, Aug. 1. The Gamecocks will generally practice in the mornings. Fall classes will begin on Tuesday, Aug. 19. The Gamecocks will open the 2025 season in Atlanta's Mercedes-Benz Stadium on Sunday, Aug. 31, when they take on the Virginia Tech Hokies. That contest will be televised nationally on ESPN beginning at 3 pm ET.

SNEAK PREVIEW: Regularly-credentialed media members can get a glimpse of the squad on four occasions during fall camp. Media can view the first three periods of practice on Friday, Aug. 1, Saturday, Aug. 2 and Friday, Aug. 8. They can also witness the first four periods on Sunday, Aug. 10. No live streaming is allowed during practice.

BIG WEEKENDS: South Carolina has several big weekends on tap for home football games in 2025. Carolina Band Day is set for the home opener against South Carolina State on Sept. 6. The Vanderbilt game on Sept. 13 has been tabbed as Family Weekend on the USC campus. Spirit Day and Teacher Appreciation Day is slated for Sept. 27 versus Kentucky. The annual Homecoming week festivities culminate on Oct. 25 when the Gamecocks host Alabama. Youth Sports, Scout and Faith & Family Day is set for Nov. 22 against Coastal Carolina.

YOU'RE SIXTEEN: The Southeastern Conference took on a new look in 2024 with the addition of blue blood programs Texas and Oklahoma. The Gamecocks did not face the Longhorns in 2024 nor will they in 2025, but they traveled to Norman for their first encounter with the Sooners in 2024 and came away with a convincing 35-9 win. OU will make its first trip to Columbia on October 18. With the additions of the two schools, the league is no longer divided into two divisions, but rather just one 16-team conference with the top two finishers advancing to Atlanta for the SEC Championship game.

THIS LOOKS FAMILIAR: South Carolina has the identical SEC slate they played a year ago with only the venue changing for each contest. Highlighting the SEC schedule is Oklahoma's first visit ever to Williams-Brice Stadium. The Gamecocks' non-conference slate features three in-state opponents, all at home - South Carolina State on Sept. 6, Coastal Carolina on Nov. 22 and Clemson in the traditional regular-season finale on Nov. 29. The season opens in Atlanta with a matchup against ACC foe Virginia Tech. That contest will be the 21st all-time between the two schools, but their first meeting on the gridiron since 1991.

MISSING YOU: With the addition of Texas and Oklahoma to the SEC and the subsequent dissolution of divisional play, the Gamecocks do not have long-time Eastern Division rivals Georgia, Florida or Tennessee on the schedule for the second year in a row. They met each of those schools every year since joining the conference in 1992 until 2024.

IT'S NOT HOW YOU START BUT HOW YOU FINISH: South Carolina concluded the 2024 season with a record of 9-4, including a 5-3 mark in the SEC. The Gamecocks finished the season ranked 19th in both major polls. The Gamecocks won their first two games, then dropped three of the next four to even their record at 3-3. Carolina then reeled off six-straight wins to finish the regular season with a 9-3 mark before falling to Illinois in the Cheez-It Citrus Bowl.

THEY CALL IT A STREAK: The Gamecocks won six-straight games to finish the 2024 regular season, the first four of which came against SEC opponents (Oklahoma, Texas A&M, Vanderbilt and Missouri), and the last of which came against ACC Champion Clemson.

THAT'S A RECORD: The Gamecocks set a school record for wins over a ranked opponent in a season with four in 2024, knocking off the AP's No. 10 Texas A&M, No. 24 Vanderbilt, No. 24 Missouri and No. 12 Clemson over the final five weeks of the regular season. They had defeated three ranked teams in a season on six occasions previously. Here are the years, opponents and rankings of those wins:

Year Opponents (Rank)

2012 Georgia (5), Clemson (12), Michigan (19)
2013 Missouri (5), Clemson (6), Wisconsin (19)
2022 Kentucky (13), Tennessee (5), Clemson (7)
2024 Texas A&M (10), Vanderbilt (24), Missouri (24), Clemson (12)

It marked the first time that South Carolina captured all three regular season trophies in the same season.

NINE WINS: After finishing with a 9-4 record in 2024, the Gamecocks have won nine or more games eight times in their history. Carolina posted a school-record 11 wins in three-straight seasons from 2011-13.
11 wins - 3 times (2011, 2012, 2013)
10 wins - 1 time (1984)
9 wins - 4 times (2001, 2010, 2017, 2024)

They logged a trio of impressive SEC road wins, all by at least three touchdowns, posting a 31-6 victory at Kentucky, winning in a 35-9 rout at Oklahoma and knocking off 24th-ranked Vanderbilt 28-7, holding all three of those opponents to under 10 points. They also won at Clemson, holding the ACC champions to just 14 points. South Carolina recorded three conference road wins for the first time since 2011 when they won at Georgia, Mississippi State and Tennessee en route to an 11-2 mark overall and a 6-2 SEC record.

IT JUST MEANS MORE: The Gamecocks recorded five SEC wins in 2024 for the first time since 2017 and for just the ninth time since joining the league in 1992.

IN THE POLLS: The Gamecocks finished the season ranked 19th in both the Associated Press and the AFCA Coaches polls. It was the second time they have finished the season ranked under head coach Shane Beamer (also No. 23 in 2022) and was their highest final ranking since the 2013 season when they finished fourth, their highest ranking in school history.

The only four losses in that stretch came to UConn in the 2010 Papajohns.com Bowl, to The Citadel in 2015, to USF in the 2016 Birmingham Bowl and to Appalachian State in 2019. It should be noted that UConn was in the Big East, which was a BCS automatic qualifier during the 2009 season.

BEAMER BEATS THE BEST: Through four seasons as a head coach, Shane Beamer has collected seven wins over ranked opponents, including three over top-10 teams, the most by any coach in South Carolina history in their first four campaigns. Here's how others have fared in their first four seasons in Columbia:

SHANE BEAMER
HEAD COACH
VIRGINIA TECH (1999)

Shane Beamer begins his fifth season in Columbia leading the South Carolina Football program in 2025, a program that is on the upswing following a very successful 2024 campaign.

Beamer, who owns a 29-22 record, has won more games through his first four seasons at Carolina than any other coach, one more than Steve Spurrier, the school's all-time winningest coach. During his tenure he has posted victories over three coaches who have won national championships – Jimbo Fisher, Dabo Swinney and Mack Brown, and has led the Gamecocks to three bowl appearances in four years.

Beamer's 2024 squad was his most successful to date. The Gamecocks finished the season with a 9-4 record including a 5-3 mark in the SEC, posting nine wins in a season for just the eighth time in school history. The Gamecocks recorded a school-record four wins against ranked opponents, including three in consecutive weeks as part of a regular season-ending six-game winning streak. Carolina finished the season ranked 19th in both the final Associated Press and Coaches polls, its highest ranking since 2013 and its second top-25 ranking in the past three seasons.

Beamer was the Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week for the third time in his career following the Gamecocks' upset win over Texas A&M and earned SEC Coach of the Year accolades from the AP, USA TODAY, Bear Bryant and College Football Nation. He was a finalist for the Eddie Robinson, the Bobby Dodd, and the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year honors and was a semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year.

Individually, edge rusher Kyle Kennard was the school's first Bronko Nagurski Award winner as the nation's top defensive player and was the SEC's Defensive Player of the Year. Kennard, along with safety Nick Emmanwori, earned first-team All-America honors, while punter Kai Kroeger was a second-team selection. Quarterback LaNorris Sellers was selected as the SEC's Freshman of the Year. Sellers, offensive tackle Josiah Thompson and Edge rusher Dylan Stewart earned Freshman All-America honors, giving the Gamecocks six All-Americans as selected by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the most of any FBS school in 2024. In addition, Kennard and Raheim Sanders were named first-team Academic All-America.

Named the Gamecocks' 36th head football coach on Dec. 6, 2020, Beamer had a successful first season in Columbia, improving the Gamecocks by 3.5 games, from a 2-8 mark in 2020 to a 7-6 campaign in 2021, including a convincing win over North Carolina in the Duke's Mayo Bowl. He tied the school record for wins by a first-year head coach, doubled the preseason's expected win total and surpassed the win total of the two previous seasons combined, earning him a share of the Steve Spurrier First-Year Coach of the Year Award, presented by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA). Safety Jaylan Foster earned All-America honors and three players were selected in the NFL Draft following his inaugural season.

In 2022, the team again exceeded expectations by recording eight wins, including three wins over ranked opponents. The Gamecocks won eight games for just the 15th time in 129 seasons and for the first time since 2017. The Gamecocks were ranked 23rd in the country in the final AP and USA Today Coaches' polls. It marked the first time since 2013 that the Gamecocks finished the season ranked in the top-25 and the 10th time Carolina has finished the season ranked in the final AP poll. The Gamecocks defeated No. 5 Tennessee and No. 7 Clemson in the final two games of the regular season, the first time Carolina has posted back-to-back wins over top-10 teams and just the seventh time in history that a school has defeated AP top-10 opponents in consecutive weeks as an unranked team, the first since 2003. Coach Beamer was a two-time Bobby Dodd National Coach of the Week recipient after wins over Kentucky and Tennessee. Punter Kai Kroeger earned All-America honors, leading a special teams unit ranked No. 1 in the country. Five players were selected in the NFL Draft off that squad, the most since 2013.

Challenged by one of the toughest schedules in the FBS and in a season mired by numerous injuries, decimating the offensive line most notably, the 2023 Gamecocks finished the campaign with a 5-7 mark. The squad was led by quarterback Spencer Rattler and wide receiver Xavier Legette. Rattler set the school's single-season record for completions (275) and completion percentage (68.9), while his 3,186 passing yards was the third-highest total in school history. Legette, a semifinalist for the Biletnikoff Award, led the team with 71 receptions for 1,255 yards and seven receiving touchdowns. His 1,255 receiving yards was the second-highest single-season mark in school history.

Prior to his first head coaching stint, Beamer had been an assistant coach at seven FBS schools for 21 seasons. During his career as an assistant, he coached in 17 bowl games, including a College Football Playoff National Championship Game, posted 18 non-losing seasons, six of those with double-digit victories, and his teams won 63 percent of its games. He coached all three phases of the game – offense, defense and special teams.

Beamer is not new to Carolina. The Charleston, S.C. native served as an assistant coach with the Gamecocks for four seasons from 2007-10 under Steve Spurrier. In 2007, he served as the outside linebackers coach and co-special teams coordinator. He mentored the cornerbacks in 2008, then coached the Spurs and strong safeties and was the special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator in 2009 and 2010, setting the foundation for the most successful run in school history.

In 2009, Beamer was nominated for the Frank Broyles Award. His special teams' units recorded five blocked kicks, tying for the SEC lead and for eighth in the nation. He also helped coach a defensive unit that ranked 15th in the country in total defense, and eighth in the nation in passing defense.

As the Gamecocks' recruiting coordinator, his 2009 class was ranked 12th-best in the country, and the 2010 and 2011 classes were ranked in the Top 25.

During his tenure as recruiting coordinator, nine Gamecocks were selected in the NFL Draft, including first round selection Stephen Gilmore (Buffalo) and second round picks Alshon Jeffery (Chicago) and D.J. Swearingin (Houston).

The Gamecocks all-time winningest quarterback, Connor Shaw, and rushing touchdown leader, Marcus Lattimore, were also in the 2010 class.

Beamer has helped build several programs during his career. He was on three coaching staffs where the head coach was in his first or second season at the school. He joined Sylvester Croom's staff at Mississippi State in his first season, Kirby Smart's program at Georgia in his first season, and Lincoln Riley's unit at Oklahoma in his second season.

Beamer served as the assistant head coach for offense and mentored the tight ends and H-backs at Oklahoma from 2018-20. In 2020, Oklahoma ranked sixth in the country in scoring, 11th in total offense and 14th in passing offense. In 2019, the Sooners led the nation in yards per play, ranked third in total offense and fourth in passing efficiency rating. Oklahoma led the nation in total offense, scoring offense and yards per play (FBS-record 8.6), and ranked second in passing efficiency rating in 2018.

Beamer spent two seasons (2016-17) at Georgia as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator under Kirby Smart, helping the Bulldogs to a 21-7 combined record. In 2017, UGA won the SEC Championship before falling in the CFP title game to Alabama in overtime. His special teams ranked eighth nationally in net punting and 20th in kickoff returns while blocking four kicks.

The son of Hall of Fame coach Frank Beamer, he worked with his father as the associate head coach and running backs coach at Virginia Tech from 2011-15. In his first year, he coached David Wilson, who broke the Tech single-season rushing record, was named All-America and ACC Player of the Year, and went on to become a first-round NFL draft selection. Shane served as the Hokies' acting head coach in the 2014 Military Bowl win while his father watched from the press box following throat surgery.

Beamer's first full-time coaching position came at Mississippi State in 2004 as cornerbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. In his first two seasons at State, he guided three defensive backs to SEC All-Freshman Team accolades. He maintained the recruiting coordinator title but made the move to running backs coach in the spring of 2006 where he tutored running back Anthony Dixon to SEC All-Freshman honors.

Beamer spent three seasons (2001-03) as a graduate assistant at Tennessee, helping with the cornerbacks and assisting in all special teams areas. He also oversaw game opponent scouting while earning a master's degree in sport management in Dec. 2003.

Before joining the staff at UT, he worked one season (2000) as a G.A. at Georgia Tech, helping with the Yellow Jacket quarterbacks and wide receivers.

A December 1999 graduate of Virginia Tech, Beamer was a member of five bowl teams (1995-99 seasons) and three Big East Conference championship squads on the Hokie football team as a long snapper and wide receiver. He was a long snapper on the 1999 Virginia Tech team that played for the BCS National Championship.

Beamer and his wife, Emily, are the parents of three children – two daughters, Sutton and Olivia, both born in Columbia, and a son, Hunter, born in Blacksburg, Va.

RUNNING BACKS COACH
USF (2002)

Marquel Blackwell begins his second season with the Gamecocks in 2025 after joining the staff as the running backs coach on January 19, 2024.

In his first year in Columbia, Blackwell's running backs room was led by Raheim "Rocket" Sanders. Sanders earned second-team All-SEC honors and was recognized as one of three College Football Comeback Player of the Year Award winners. His 881 yards rushing were the most for a Gamecock since 2020. The Gamecocks averaged 184.4 yards per game on the ground, their most since 2013 and nearly 100 yards per game more than they averaged in 2023.

No stranger to the SEC, Blackwell came to Carolina following a one-year stint at Texas A&M. Prior to his arrival in Aggieland, Blackwell spent the 2022 season at Ole Miss following three seasons at Houston.

At Ole Miss, Blackwell helped lead one of the best rushing offenses as the Rebels led the SEC and ranked third in the nation at 256.5 yards per game. Freshman Quinshon Judkins led the SEC and ranked among the top 10 nationally with 1,565 yards and 16 TDs.

Blackwell began his time at Houston as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2019 before taking over the running backs for the 2020 and 2021 seasons.

In his second season as running backs coach at Houston, Blackwell saw the total rushing production improve by 847 yards. Cougar running backs found the end zone 27 times in 2021 compared to 12 in 2020.

Blackwell helped freshman phenom Alton McCaskill to a record-setting season in 2021 that concluded with him being named AAC Rookie of the Year. McCaskill's 961 rushing yards were the most by a UH running back since 2015 while his 16 rushing touchdowns led all true freshmen across the country.

Blackwell spent the 2018 season at West Virginia and helped lead a Mountaineer offense that eclipsed the 500-yard and 40-point marks eight times during the season, including 704 yards and 56 points vs. Oklahoma.

West Virginia had three different running backs register 100-yard rushing games during the 2018 season in Leddie Brown, Kennedy McKoy and Martell Pettaway. Brown became the first WVU true freshman to record multiple 100-yard rushing games since 2007.

Blackwell arrived at West Virginia after serving as the running backs coach at Toledo in 2016-17. He was part of a staff that led the Rockets to a 20-7 mark through two seasons, including an 11-3 record in 2017, the 2017 Mid-American Conference championship and two bowl appearances.

In 2017, Terry Swanson led the Mid-American Conference with 1,363 rushing yards and was third in the league with 14 touchdowns. That same season saw Shakif Symour run for 704 yards and 12 touchdowns, No. 3 in the MAC and No. 4 among all freshmen in FBS. Against Bowling Green, Seymour tied a school record with five rushing touchdowns.

In 2016, Kareem Hunt led the MAC and was No. 15 nationally with 1,475 yards while rushing for at least 100 yards eight times. A third-round NFL Draft selection

DECAMILLIS

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH /
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

WYOMING (1988)

Longtime NFL special teams coach Joe DeCamillis begins his second year in Columbia. He was named as the Gamecocks' associate head coach/special teams coordinator on Jan. 29, 2024.

In his first season with the Gamecocks, DeCamillis mentored punter Kai Kroeger, who earned second team All-America honors and was the coaches' selection as the All-SEC punter. A Ray Guy semifinalist, Kroeger led the SEC and ranked third in the country averaging a school-record 47.8 yards per punt. The Gamecocks finished sixth in the nation in net punting, 13th in punt return defense and 14th in kickoff return defense.

DeCamillis spent the 2023 season on Steve Sarkisian's staff at the University of Texas where he served as a special assistant to the head coach while sharing ideas and analysis of the Longhorns' special teams units with special teams coordinator/tight ends coach Jeff Banks.

Texas ranked 20th in the country in special teams efficiency in 2023, according to ESPN analytics. The Longhorns tied for 10th in the nation with three blocked kicks, ranked 11th in the nation with a 15.9-yard punt return average and 16th in the country with a net punting average of 41.8 yards. The Longhorns won the Big 12 title and advanced to the College Football Playoffs in DeCamillis lone season in Austin.

Prior to his stint at UT, DeCamillis spent the previous 34 years in the NFL including 32 as a special teams coach. He helped lead his squad to seven AFC or NFC Championship Game appearances and four Super Bowls, winning Super Bowl titles with the Denver Broncos in 2015 and the Los Angeles Rams in 2021.

DeCamillis began his NFL career as an administrative assistant for his father-in-law, then Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves, a former Gamecock football standout. DeCamillis was promoted to a position on Reeves' coaching staff in 1991 as a special teams assistant and spent two years in that post with the Broncos.

DeCamillis continued to work for Coach Reeves as a special teams coach for the New York Giants from 1993-96 and the Atlanta Falcons from 1997-2003. After Reeves' departure, DeCamillis remained on the Falcons' staff through the 2006 season. He has also served as the special teams coach for the Jacksonville Jaguars (2007-08), and as the special teams coordinator for the Dallas Cowboys (2009-12), Chicago Bears (2013-14), Denver Broncos (2015-16), Jacksonville Jaguars (2017-20) and Los Angeles Rams (2021-22). He also held the title of Assistant Head Coach while with the Bears.

On Oct. 13, 2016, DeCamillis served as the interim head coach for Denver's game against the San Diego Chargers while Gary Kubiak was recovering from an illness. The Broncos dropped a 21-13 decision in his head coaching debut.

SHAWN
ELLIOTT

RUN GAME COORDINATOR/TIGHT ENDS COACH

APPALACHIAN STATE (1996)

Shawn Elliott begins the second year of his second stint with Carolina Football in 2025. He was named the Gamecocks' run game coordinator and tight ends coach, on Feb. 16, 2024. The Camden, S.C., native has been part of 24 winning campaigns and 22 postseason appearances in 28 seasons as a college coach.

Elliott's first year back in Columbia proved to be successful. Led by Raheim Sanders, the Gamecock running game showed a huge improvement, as Carolina averaged 184.4 yards per game on the ground, its most since 2013 and nearly 100 yards per game more than it averaged in 2023. Sanders earned second-team All-SEC honors and was recognized as one of three College Football Comeback Player of the Year Award winners. His 881 yards rushing were the most for a Gamecock since 2020. The tight end room was led by Joshua Simon, who paced the team with 40 receptions, 519 yards and seven touch-downs, the first tight end in school history to lead the team in all three categories.

Prior to returning to Columbia, Elliott served for seven seasons as the head coach at Georgia State where he posted a 41-44 record and led the Panthers to four bowl wins in five appearances. A long-time offensive line coach, Elliott built the GSU program by establishing one of the nation's most productive rushing attacks. Over his last five seasons in Atlanta, the Panthers averaged 214 yards rushing per game.

Elliott posted Georgia State's first winning season as an FBS program in 2017. He logged the school's first consecutive winning seasons and three-straight bowl berths from 2019-21, culminating with a school-record eight wins in 2021. He pulled a stunning upset in 2019 with a win at Tennessee for the program's first Power 5 win, earning him Bobby Dodd Trophy National Coach of the Week honors, and engineered the school's first win over a ranked opponent with a win at No. 21 Coastal Carolina in 2021.

While at GSU, Elliott produced 71 All-Sun Belt Conference players, one All-American and one Freshman All-American. Eleven of his players signed NFL free agent contracts, including five who played in the league. In addition, GSU had eight Academic All-District selections and one Academic All-American during his tenure.

Before taking over in Atlanta, Elliott worked seven seasons (2010-16) at South Carolina under Steve Spurrier and Will Muschamp, highlighted by three consecutive 11-win seasons from 2011-13. In addition to coaching the offensive line, he was the running game coordinator in 2010 and 2011, was elevated to co-offensive coordinator in 2012, and then served as the interim head coach for the final half of the 2015 season.

Elliott originally joined the South Carolina staff in 2010 and helped the Gamecocks reach five-straight bowl games while coaching some of the most prolific and balanced offenses in school history. The Gamecocks turned in the program's best offensive season, statistically, in 2013, averaging 34.1 points while rolling up a school-record 452.3 yards per game.

South Carolina's 2014 unit scored nearly 33 points per game while averaging over 440 yards of offense as All-America and All-SEC offensive guard A.J. Cann paved the way. In 2010, Elliott's first season in Columbia, his line blocked for record-setting running back Marcus Lattimore, the National Freshman of the Year. In addition to Cann, a third-round draft pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2015, Elliott developed future NFL linemen Corey Robinson, Ronald Patrick, Brandon Shell, T.J. Johnson and Rokevious Watkins.

Before coming to South Carolina in 2010, Elliott coached at Appalachian State, his alma mater. In 13 seasons, he was a key part of App State's three-straight NCAA titles from 2005-07 and the Mountaineers' historic upset at Michigan in 2007.

MIKE
FURREY

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS COACH

NORTHERN IOWA (2000)

Mike Furrey is in his second year with the Gamecock Football program. He was named the Gamecocks' wide receivers coach on February 29, 2024, and was given the additional title of passing game coordinator on Dec. 17, 2024.

In his first season with the Gamecocks, Furrey meshed a receiving unit that was comprised of several newcomers, many of whom did not participate in spring drills. Despite not having a true WR1, six wide receivers hauled in at least a dozen passes, led by true freshman Mazeo Bennett Jr.'s 30 catches. Furrey's relentless recruiting also saw the wide receiver room completely flip heading into the 2025 season, as he signed six top-flight prospects, several of whom could make an immediate impact.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Furrey spent the previous two seasons as the head coach at Limestone University, a Division II school located in Gaffney, S.C. Coming off an 0-9 season in the year prior to his arrival, he led the Saints to back-to-back 8-4 campaigns, including a share of the title in the South Atlantic Conference's Piedmont Division and a spot in the Division II playoffs in both seasons, in his second stint at the school. He previously served as the Saints' head coach in 2016 and 2017.

Sandwiched between the two stints at Limestone, Furrey logged four seasons as the wide receivers coach on Matt Nagy's staff with the Chicago Bears. He helped Chicago to an NFC North title in 2018, while the Bears reached the playoffs in both 2018 and 2020. The Bears posted a 34-31 record during his four-year tenure in the Windy City.

Furrey began his coaching career in 2011 as the head coach at Kentucky Christian University, an NAIA program in Grayson, Ky. He turned the struggling program around from an 0-11 campaign in the year prior to his arrival to a 7-4 season and a Top-25 ranking in 2012. He left KCU after two seasons to become the wide receivers coach at Marshall University, a position he held for three years. During his tenure with the Thundering Herd, Furrey helped guide the program to three-straight bowl wins and the 2014 Conference USA Championship. Marshall led Conference USA in scoring offense while ranking in the Top-5 nationally in total offense during the 2013 and 2014 campaigns.

Furrey played a combined eight years in the NFL with St. Louis (2003-05), Detroit (2006-08), Cleveland (2009) and Washington (2010). His best season as a professional came during the 2006 season with the Lions when he led the NFC with 98 receptions for 1,086 yards and seven touchdowns. His 98 catches that season set an NFL record for most receptions in a season after having none the previous year. He played on defense with the Rams in the prior season.

After signing with the Indianapolis Colts as an undrafted free agent in 2000, Furrey spent one season with the Las Vegas Outlaws in the XFL before play-

In 2022, the Gamecocks ranked 27th in the country in pass efficiency defense and 34th in passing defense, allowing just 206.7 yards per game through the air. Carolina intercepted 15 passes, tops in the SEC and 14th in the nation. They had a pair of "pick-6s" in the TaxSlayer Gator Bowl versus Notre Dame. In 2021, Carolina surrendered 180.8 yards per game through the air, the fewest since 2011, tops in the SEC and seventh in the nation. Carolina intercepted 15 passes, tying for second in the SEC and for 14th in the country. Safety Jaylan Foster earned second-team All-America honors after leading the team with 96 tackles and five interceptions, tied for fourth in the country. Corner Cam Smith defended 14 passes including three INTs.

Prior to his arrival in Columbia, Gray spent two seasons coaching the cornerbacks at Florida, his second stint with the Gators. In 2019, the Gators tied for ninth in the FBS with 16 interceptions. UF was one of only two teams to have four players with at least three interceptions. CJ Henderson (First Team) and Kaiir Elam (Freshman) earned All-SEC honors. Henderson was the ninth pick in the NFL Draft, while Elam earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Prior to his stint with the Gators, Gray worked with the defensive backs for Washington in the NFL. In 2017, his first season in the nation's capital, Gray's unit helped produce the team's strongest season against the pass in nearly a decade. They ranked third in completion percentage allowed (57.6 percent), the team's best ranking since 2005 (54.4), while finishing ninth in passing yards allowed per game and 10th in opponent passer rating. One of his standout performers was former Gamecock D.J. Swearinger.

In 2016, Gray served as the defensive backs coach at Florida. Under Gray's guidance, cornerback Teez Tabor earned first-team All-SEC and second-team All-American honors. Gray also helped defensive back Quincy Wilson earn second-team All-SEC accolades.

In his 10 seasons coaching the secondary in Blacksburg under head coach Frank Beamer, his unit allowed just 185.0 passing yards per game and a 106.5 opponent passer rating – both ranked second in the nation over that span. Opposing quarterbacks completed just 50.4 percent of their passes, the nation's top

NORTH CAROLINA STATE (2012)

Sterling Lucas is in his fourth season on the Gamecocks' coaching staff. He officially joined the Gamecocks' on-field coaching staff on Jan. 14, 2022 as the defensive ends/outside linebackers coach. He was given the additional responsibilities and title of Defensive Run Game Coordinator in January 2025.

Lucas mentored arguably the best tandem of edge rushers in the country in 2024. Senior transfer Kyle Kennard was the first Gamecock to win the Bronco Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player, was the SEC Defensive Player of the Year, and earned All-America honors after logging 15.5 tackles for loss including 11.5 sacks, the second-highest single-season mark in school history. His counterpart, true freshman Dylan Stewart, was a finalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year honors after collecting 10.5 tackles for loss with 6.5 sacks in his first season as a Gamecock. Carolina totaled 41 sacks, just two shy of the school record and tying for the sixth-best mark in the country. The Gamecocks were 12th in the country in scoring defense and 18th in the nation in rush defense while forcing 24 turnovers.

In 2023, the Gamecock defense surrendered 149.4 rushing yards per game, the fewest since 2017 and the second-fewest since 2012, while forcing 17 turnovers in 12 games.

In his first season in Columbia in 2022, the Gamecocks ranked 27th in the country in pass efficiency defense and 34th in passing defense, allowing just 206.7 yards per game through the air. The Gamecock defense forced 23 turnovers, including eight fumble recoveries and 15 interceptions. The 23 turnovers forced ranked second in the SEC and 20th in the country, while the 15 picks ranked first in the league and 14th in the nation.

Lucas, an Orangeburg, S.C., native, spent the previous year as an assistant defensive line coach for the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars. Prior to that, he spent five seasons (2016-20) working with the Baltimore Ravens.

Lucas began his tenure in Baltimore in 2016 and held various roles on the defensive side of the ball until 2020, when he worked with the defensive line under current Jaguars defensive coordinator Joe Cullen. With Lucas on staff from 2016-20, the Ravens led the NFL in total defense (314.1 yards per game), allowed the second-fewest rushing yards per game (97.1) and produced the third-most takeaways (126). Lucas worked closely with several Pro Bowl players while in Baltimore, including DL Calais Campbell (2020), OLB Matthew Judon (2019 and 2020) and LB C.J. Mosley (2017 and 2018).

In 2020, Lucas helped the Ravens advance to the AFC Divisional round as their defense allowed the second-fewest points (18.9) and seventh-fewest yards (329.8) per game in the NFL. He was promoted from defensive quality control coach to defensive assistant/linebackers coach in 2019 and assisted with the team's linebackers, which helped the team allow the NFL's third-fewest points per game (17.6) and the fourth-fewest yards per game (300.6). Baltimore earned a franchise-best 14-2 record and its second-straight AFC North title.

In 2018, Lucas worked with the NFL's No. 1 ranked defense (292.2 yards per game allowed), which permitted the league's second-fewest points per games (17.9). He served as an administrative assistant for the defense in 2017, helping Baltimore post NFL bests in takeaways (34), INTs (22) and shut-outs (three). He originally joined the team in 2016 working on the defensive side of the ball, while also assisting the strength and conditioning staff.

Lucas began his coaching career at North Carolina State where he spent 2013 as a graduate assistant in the strength and conditioning department prior to spending 2014-15 as a defensive graduate assistant, with a primary focus on coaching the linebackers and nickelbacks. South Carolina's defensive coordinator Clayton White was on the NC State defensive staff during that time, coaching the safeties.

A product of Orangeburg-Wilkinson High School, Lucas graduated from North Carolina State in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in communications and played linebacker for the Wolfpack from 2008-12, finishing his career with 167 tackles, 4.0 sacks and one INT.

Lucas and his wife, Brittany, have four girls, Londyn, Ari, Nova and Zuri.

Travian Robertson is in his third season as the Gamecocks' defensive line coach. He was named to the post on May 1, 2023.

Led by a trio of veteran defensive tackles in Tonka Hemingway, T.J. Sanders and Alex Huntley, the Gamecocks were 12th in the country in scoring defense and 18th in the nation in rush defense while forcing 24 turnovers during the 2024 campaign. In addition, Carolina totaled 41 sacks, just two shy of the school record and tying for the sixth-best mark in the country. Sanders earned second-team All-SEC honors from the Associated Press.

In his first season back in Columbia in 2023, the Carolina alum led a defensive line that surrendered 149.4 rushing yards per game, the fewest since 2017 and the second fewest since 2012. Both T.J. Sanders and Alex Huntley were recognized as SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week during the 2023 campaign. Sanders led the team with 9.5 tackles for loss and 4.5 sacks from his defensive tackle position.

Robertson spent the 2022 season at Tulane, where he helped head coach Willie Fritz and the Green Wave to a 12-2 record overall, including a win over Southern California in the 2023 Cotton Bowl. The Green Wave went 7-1 in the American Athletic Conference, defeated UCF in the conference championship game for their first-ever AAC football title, and finished the season ranked ninth in both the AP and Coaches' polls. Tulane allowed 22.2 points and 360.4 yards per game, surrendering just 3.9 yards per rush. Defensive tackle Patrick Jenkins and defensive end Darius Hodges both earned second-team all-AAC honors.

Robertson came to Tulane after serving as a defensive line coach at Georgia State, where he worked under former Gamecock assistant and interim head coach Shawn Elliott for three years. During that three-year stint, the Panthers collected 94 sacks (2.4 per game), including a school-record 38 sacks in 2021.

The Panthers earned back-to-back-to-back bowl berths in his three seasons, and under Robertson's tutelage, defensive linemen Dontae Wilson and Hardrick Willis earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors. Willis also became the Panthers' career sack leader.

In 2021, GSU ranked 15th nationally in tackles for loss at 7.1 per game. The team was second in the Sun Belt Conference and 23rd nationally in sacks, averaging 2.92 per contest.

In 2020, Robertson helped the GSU defense rank No. 8 in FBS with 21 turnovers forced while allowing a program-record 3.86 yards per rush. The Panthers' average of 136.6 rushing yards allowed per game was the second-best mark in school history, while boasting four of the program's top 11 single-game performances against the run.

MIKE
SHULA

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS COACH

ALABAMA (1987)

Mike Shula is in his first season as South Carolina's offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach. He was officially promoted to the post on Dec. 17, 2024, replacing Dowell Loggains, who was named the head coach at Appalachian State University.

Shula joined the Gamecocks' staff as an offensive analyst on March 18, 2024, as spring practice opened. He was named senior offensive assistant coach prior to the start of the 2024 fall camp and worked with the Carolina quarterbacks. In his first season with the Gamecocks he helped redshirt freshman signal-caller LaNorris Sellers earn third-team All-SEC, SEC Freshman of the Year and FWAA National Offensive Player of the Year accolades.

Shula, whose previously college experience came at Alabama where he was the starting quarterback from 1984-86 and later served as the school's head coach from 2003-06, most recently served as the senior offensive assistant for the Buffalo Bills for the 2022 and 2023 seasons.

Shula has spent nearly his entire coaching career in the NFL. He began his coaching career as an offensive assistant with Tampa Bay (1988-90), before spending two years as a defensive assistant with Miami (1991-92) and three in Chicago as the Bears' tight ends coach (1993-95).

Shula's first stint as an offensive coordinator came on Tony Dungy's staff in Tampa Bay from 1996-99. He returned to Miami as the Dolphins quarterbacks coach from 2000-02 before becoming the Crimson Tide's head coach in 2003. At the time, he was the second-youngest coach in Division I-A football at age 38.

Shula returned to the NFL in 2007, beginning a four-year stint as the quarterbacks coach in Jacksonville. He oversaw David Garrard's development from becoming a full-time starter in 2007 to making the Pro Bowl in 2009.

He joined the Carolina Panthers in 2011 and served as the Panthers' quarterbacks coach for two seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator, a position he held from 2013-17. In 2011, he helped quarterback Cam Newton earn Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year after passing for over 4,000 yards and accounting for 35 touchdowns. Under Shula's tutelage, Newton broke the record for most passing yards in a player's first two seasons, held by Peyton Manning. Shula was named Offensive Coordinator of the Year by Pro Football Focus during the 2015 NFL season after Newton won the NFL MVP award and the Panthers reached the Super Bowl.

Shula served as the New York Giants offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2018-19, then spent the 2020 and 2021 seasons in Denver as the Broncos' quarterbacks coach before his two-year run in Buffalo.

Shula was hired as head coach at Alabama in May 2003 after the termination of Mike Price. At the time of his arrival, the program was in great turmoil despite a 10-3 record the previous year. In that year, the program had been hammered by NCAA sanctions, and lost Dennis Franchione to Texas A&M, and subsequently fired Mike Price due to his off-field actions. At the time, he was the second-youngest coach in all of Division I-A football, at age 38. His best season came in 2005 when the Tide went 10-2 with a victory in the 2006 Cooton Bowl Classic over the Mike Leach-led Texas Tech Red Raiders, climbing as high as number 3 in the polls. They finished that season ranked eighth in the nation.

Born June 3, 1965, in Baltimore, Md., he is the son of the late Don Shula, the NFL's all-time winningest coach, the younger brother of Dave Shula, former head coach of the Cincinnati Bengals, and the uncle of Chris Shula, the defensive coordinator for the Los Angeles Rams.

He attended high school at Christopher Columbus High in Miami where he won all-state honors and led his team to the state championship game in 1982.

Shula graduated from the University of Alabama in 1987 with a degree in labor relations. As the Tide's starting quarterback from 1984-86, he logged a 24-11-1 mark over three seasons. He was the 1985 first-team All-SEC quarterback and was selected in the 12th round, the 313rd overall pick, in the 1987 draft by Tampa Bay.

He has three daughters, Samantha, Brooke and Ryan.

Lonnie
TEASLEY
OFFENSIVE LINE COACH
WINSTON-SALEM STATE (2008)

Lonnie Teasley is in his third season as the Gamecocks' offensive line coach. He assumed that role on a full-time basis on Jan. 6, 2023, replacing Greg Adkins as one of the Gamecocks' 10 on-field coaches.

The Gamecocks remained healthy up front during the 2024 season, leading to a more consistent performance from the unit with Teasley sending out the same starting five offensive linemen in 12 of 13 games. Carolina boasted a balanced attack, passing for 223.4 yards per game while rushing for 184.4 yards per contest. They averaged nearly 100 more rushing yards per game in 2024 than they had in 2023. The Gamecocks averaged over 30 points per game, just the second time that had been accomplished since the 2018 season, and over 400 yards of offense per contest for just the second time since 2014. Right guard Torricelli Simpkins III was a third-team All-SEC selection according to the league's 16 coaches while left tackle Josiah Thompson was a True Freshman All-American and first-team Freshman All-SEC.

In 2023, Teasley's unit was besieged by a rash of injuries, many of which were season ending. Teasley pieced together a unit that used a different starting combination in each of the first nine games. The Gamecocks started three left tackles, three left guards, two centers, two right guards and four right tackles during the season. Offensive guard Trovon Baugh was recognized on the Freshman All-SEC squad as selected by the league's coaches.

Teasley took over the on-field coaching duties with the Gamecocks' offensive line early in the 2022 season while Adkins was dealing with a minor health issue that limited his availability. Under his guidance, Jovaughn Gwyn earned second-team All-SEC honors from the league's coaches, was invited to the Reese's Senior Bowl and to the 2023 NFL Combine and was a seventh round draft selection by the Atlanta Falcons.

Teasley joined the South Carolina staff in 2021 as an offensive analyst after spending the previous two years as the offensive line coach at North Carolina Central University. Prior to that, he worked as the offensive line coach at Arkansas-Pine Bluff (2018) and Tennessee Tech (2017). He also has NFL experience, having worked for two seasons (2015-16) with the Baltimore Ravens, assisting the offensive line coach. He also served as an assistant offensive line coach at Temple for the 2014 campaign.

South Carolina fielded its first football team in 1892 and for the first three seasons no head coach was designated. The all-time won-lost-tie record includes those three seasons. No football was played in 1893 and in 1906 the trustees abolished the sport for one season.

7 Jadeveon CLOWNEY

Jadeveon Clowney, a two-time first-team All-American and All-SEC selection and the 2012 SEC Defensive Player of the Year, had his jersey retired in ceremonies at halftime of the Georgia State game on Sept. 3, 2022.

The Rock Hill, SC, native came to South Carolina as the nation's top high school recruit in 2011 from South Pointe (S.C.) High School and immediately made an impact for the Gamecocks.

As a true freshman in 2011, he was named SEC Freshman of the Year and second-team All-SEC. He was named to multiple Freshman All-America teams after being credited with 36 total tackles, 12 for losses, including eight sacks and five forced fumbles.

His sophomore season in 2012 was his greatest year as a Gamecock. He tallied 54 total tackles, a school single-season record 23.5 for losses, including a school-record 13 sacks and three forced fumbles. Clowney became South Carolina's second unanimous All-American in school history and first since George Rogers in 1980. He was the recipient of the Ted Hendricks Award as the nation's top defensive end. Additionally, he was a finalist for the Chuck Bednarik Award, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award, and finished sixth overall in the 2012 Heisman Trophy voting. In addition, he was voted by the fans as the 2012 AT&T All-America Player of the Year.

Clowney's tackle, forced fumble and fumble recovery against Michigan in the 2013 Outback Bowl is regarded as one of the most iconic moments in college football history.

In his junior and final campaign as a Gamecock, Clowney registered 39 total tackles, 11.5 for losses, including three sacks and a forced fumble on his way to a second-straight first-team All-American season.

The Gamecocks were a combined 33-6 overall and 18-6 in SEC play during his three seasons wearing the Garnet and Black. Carolina finished each of the three seasons with bowl victories – 2011 vs. Nebraska in the Capital One Bowl, 2012 vs. Michigan in the Outback Bowl and 2013 vs. Wisconsin in the Capital One Bowl. Carolina finished in the Top 10 in each of his three seasons and was ranked in the AP Top 25 every week of Clowney's career.

He was the first selection of the 2014 NFL Draft by the Houston Texans.

1 Alshon JEFFERY

All-America and All-SEC wide receiver Alshon Jeffery had his jersey retired at halftime of South Carolina's Sept. 23, 2023 game against Mississippi State.

The St. Matthews, S.C. native finished his three-year career with 183 catches for 3,042 yards and 23 touchdowns. In the Gamecock career record books he ranks third in receptions, second in receiving yards, tied for first in receiving touchdowns, first in 100-yard receiving games (12), sixth in yards per reception (16.6) and third in consecutive games with a reception (36).

He followed that up later in the season with eight catches for a season-best 161 yards and a score against Vanderbilt, and five catches for 116 yards and a touchdown against Arkansas.

Jeffery's best statistical season for the Gamecocks was his sophomore campaign in 2010. He led the SEC with 88 catches for 1,517 yards and nine touchdowns enroute to earning All-America and unanimous All-SEC honors and helping the Gamecocks to their first SEC Eastern Division title. He was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award, given to the nation's top wide receiver. Against Auburn, during the regular season, Jeffery had eight catches for career-high 192 yards and two touchdowns. At the time, it was the fourth-highest receiving yardage game in school history and remains sixth on the all-time list. He earned the Ernest Brooks Offensive MVP Award with five catches for 141 yards in a win over Clemson and had nine catches for 130 yards against Florida State in the Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Prior to his junior season, ESPN ranked Jeffery as the best player in the SEC. He had 49 catches for 762 yards and eight touchdowns in his junior campaign. AMIRIDIS
UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

ARISTOTELIAN UNIVERSITY OF THESSALONIKI IN GREECE (1985)

Michael Amiridis, the University of South Carolina's 30th president, is committed to using two of the university's greatest strengths — education and research — to improve prospects for all South Carolinians.

The challenges facing higher education are many, but President Amiridis is confident in the university's ability to address them with a commitment to excellence, transparency and accessibility. As the university's 30th president, he is drawing on his experience as a faculty member, academic administrator and higher education leader to guide South Carolina into its next era of success.

President Amiridis began his term at South Carolina on July 1, 2022. Prior to coming to South Carolina, he had served as chancellor of the University of Illinois-Chicago since 2015.

Amiridis is a 1985 graduate of Aristotelian University of Thessaloniki in Greece. He earned his Ph.D. in chemical engineering from the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1991. As a researcher, he earned the National Science Foundation's award for early-career scientists and engineers in 1999. He was elected a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in 2012 and a fellow of the American Institute of Chemical Engineers in 2015.

During his tenure at UIC, the school completed a successful capital campaign that raised more $750 million and saw six years of record campus enrollment, while winning national accolades for attracting an increasingly diverse student population. He served on the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors for seven years.

Prior to his leadership at UIC, Amiridis spent more than two decades at the University of South Carolina in Columbia. He held positions as a chemical engineering professor, department chair, dean of the College of Engineering and Computing and, from 2009 to 2015, the university's executive vice president for academic affairs and provost. He received numerous awards as a professor, including the University of South Carolina's Michael J. Mungo Undergraduate and Graduate Teaching Awards and the Samuel Litman Distinguished Professor Award.

Amiridis was born in Greece and was recognized by Carnegie Corporation of New York as a Great Immigrant in 2022. He and his wife, Ero Aggelopoulou-Amiridis, have two children, Aspasia and Dimitri, both graduates of the University of South Carolina.

JEREMIAH DONATI

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

UNIVERSITY OF PUGET SOUND (2001)

Jeremiah Donati was named the University of South Carolina's 31st Director of Athletics on Dec. 5, 2024. He officially began his duties on Jan. 2, 2025, bringing a wealth of experience in navigating an ever-changing collegiate sports landscape to Columbia.

Donati quickly enjoyed success with the Gamecocks, as the women's basketball squad was the SEC champion and national runners-up, while the women's golf and equestrian teams also won SEC titles, the softball team advanced to the Super Regionals and women's outdoor track & field placed seventh in the nation in just his first six months on campus.

Donati came to South Carolina after serving as the Athletics Director at TCU since July 2017, where he led the Horned Frogs' athletics program to new heights including eight team national championships and 11 Big 12 Conference titles. In addition to TCU being the first Texas team to appear in the College Football Playoffs, TCU's men's basketball program has appeared in the last three NCAA Tournaments while its baseball team won back-to-back Big 12 championships and made one appearance in the College World Series.

In the 2023-24 athletics season, TCU was one of only five schools nationally to win multiple NCAA Championships. In the previous 2022-23 season, TCU became the first school in the College Football Playoff era to reach the CFP, NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament and College World Series in the same academic year. Under first-year head football coach Sonny Dykes, the Horned Frogs reached the College Football Playoff in 2022, defeating Michigan in the CFP semifinals of the Fiesta Bowl and played Georgia in the national championship game.

That same season, TCU set a school record with six conference coach of the year recipients: football, women's diving, beach volleyball, men's golf, men's tennis and equestrian.

Donati arrived at TCU in 2011 as Deputy Athletics Director, playing a major role in fundraising and project development before being named AD. His efforts enhanced the TCU student-athlete experience through significant facility upgrades totaling nearly $500 million. The most recent project is a $50 million renovation and expansion to TCU's Athletics Human Performance Center.

Under Donati, TCU also has enjoyed record levels of donor support for its athletics program. In the four years he oversaw fundraising in the Frog Club, TCU recorded its three highest totals in overall athletics giving. Additionally, TCU reached record levels in men's basketball attendance as well as setting new marks in ticket and licensing revenues.

In March 2019, Donati worked with TCU football legend LaDainian Tomlinson to create the Tomlinson Student-Athlete Development Endowment Fund to help prepare student-athletes from all of TCU's sports programs for their lives and careers after graduation.

Prior to joining TCU, Donati was with Leigh Steinberg Sports and Entertainment as general counsel and director of player representation. He has experience in professional and intercollegiate athletics includes fundraising positions with the University of Arizona Wildcat Club, Washington State University Cougar Athletic Fund and the Cal Poly University Mustang Club.

Donati earned a bachelor's degree in politics and government in 2001 from the University of Puget Sound, where he was a basketball student-athlete. He received a Juris Doctorate from Whittier Law School in 2005 and is a member of the California Bar Association.

While at TCU, he was a member of the Big 12 Conference's Athletics Directors Executive Committee and Football Working Group, Learfield's AD Advisory Board, the Board of Trustees for the Davey O'Brien Foundation in Fort Worth and the Coalition Academy in conjunction with the National Coalition of Minority Football Coaches.

Donati and his wife, Nicole, have two daughters: Colette and Naomi.

Press Credentials

Working press credentials for the 2025 South Carolina home football games must be requested online through www.sportssystem.com/clients/seccredentials. Credential requests must come from the sports editor or the sports director only. It is not possible to accommodate all requests. No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential without prior approval.

The credentialing system will begin operation approximately August 1. All credentials will be approved and issued on a game-by-game basis only. Requests should be made no later than seven (7) days prior to game day and will be approved the week of the game. Once approved, ALL credentials must be picked up on game day at Media Will Call, located on the west side of the stadium by the press box elevators. Media Will Call will open three (3) hours prior to kick-off. Photographers must have appropriate equipment on hand to receive a sideline photo vest.

Any questions or concerns should be directed to Director of Athletics Communications Kent Reichert at 803-777-5257 or by email at kentr2@mailbox.sc.edu.

Note: Credentials will be considered only for those media members on specific assignment for a specific media outlet that meets the criteria listed below. Credentials are non-transferable and may be revoked at any time.

The granting and number of credentials for daily NEWSPAPERS will be based on the newspaper's circulation on a space-available basis.

Those newspapers publishing more than twice a week, but less than six, will have priority after those in the daily newspaper category.

WEBSITES that meet one of the following criteria will be issued a maximum of three (3) approved press box credentials, which includes the videographer, and one (1) field pass to be used for still photography.

1. Is the official website of the home or visiting school or its conference;
2. Is the official online service of a national over-the-air or cable television network;
3. Has a "national affiliate agreement" with or is an officially licensed site of a national or local news gathering organization and has at least one full-time employee dedicated to writing for the site;
4. Is a local news gathering organization that has at least two full-time employees and is owned by a media company with multiple assets.

Websites that are an extension of a non-digital local media outlet (newspaper, radio, television) will not be issued credentials independent of their originating organization.

Sport-specific websites with more than two full-time writers will be considered on a case-by-case, space available basis.

No credentials will be issued to any website that is not deemed by the Athletics Communications department to have adequate editorial oversight or is affiliated with gambling. Credentials will not be approved to anyone who writes or posts under an alias.

TELEVISION stations will be issued a maximum of two (2) approved press box credentials. However, press box seating is not guaranteed for both credentials. Television stations will receive a maximum of one (1) field pass.

Local RADIO stations will be granted one (1) approved press box credential for a full-time host of a daily (Monday-Friday) sports show that is a minimum of 60 minutes in length. In addition, one (1) press box credential will be distributed per station for the sports director. Field passes will not be issued to radio stations. Non-daily local radio sports shows and out-of-market radio stations that have a daily sports show will be granted a maximum one (1) credential on a game-by-game, space available basis to the show's host or the station's sports director only.

STUDENT MEDIA outlets for the home and visiting schools will be issued credentials in accordance with the policy for their format (newspaper, website, radio, television). To be considered student media, the outlet must be sanctioned as such by the university, have full-time university staff overseeing the training of staff or be governed by a university-appointed board, and receive some portion of its funding from student fees.

PHOTO WIRE SERVICES that distribute nationally and retain all rights for sale and usage of any image taken at the event will be issued one (1) field pass with an option for a second on a game-by-game, space-available basis. Any wire service that sells/shares its images for non-editorial uses must provide the University of South Carolina Athletics Communications department with a statement indicating how it ensures that non-editorial clients use its images within NCAA regulations to protect the name, image, likeness rights of the student-athletes.

All other credential requests, including weekly newspapers, magazines, specialty publications, etc. will be considered on a game-by-game and case-by-case basis at the discretion of Steve Fink, Associate AD/Communications. All credential policies are subject to change, and final approval of all credentials is at the discretion of the Associate AD/Communications.

Non-affiliated bloggers, podcast staff and freelance photographers/videographers, along with websites that are primarily focused on gambling will not be credentialed.

Media outlets that cover the visiting school will be considered using the credential criteria established and in consultation with that school's communications staff.

Media with Press Box only credentials are not allowed on the sidelines at any time until the teams have cleared the field following the game.

Sideline Policy

The University of South Carolina adheres to the NCAA and SEC guidelines regarding media representatives on the sidelines:

1. Accredited photographers must check in at Media Will Call and present photo ID. Those photographers working on the sidelines will be issued a vest. The vest must be worn at all times on the sidelines. No other type of credential will allow an individual access to the sidelines during the game.
2. Only working photographers/videographers with professional-grade cameras will be allowed on the field. A cell phone is not considered appropriate equipment. Those without proper equipment or not shooting the game will be escorted from the sidelines regardless of credential. "Runners" will not be issued a sideline pass.
3. Working photographers/videographers are permitted to shoot in the designated area (between the two marked dotted lines outside the team bench area). Media will not be allowed to shoot from either end zone.
4. A limited number of photographers will be assigned space to work in the photo work room, located on the field level of Williams-Brice Stadium. Wired and wireless internet are available. While security in this area is provided, the University of South Carolina is not responsible for the loss of any items.
5. According to NCAA policies, the presence of any type of photographer/videographer in the bench area is strictly prohibited with the exception of one (1) institutional videographer in the football bench area. According to the NCAA Football Rules and Interpretations Manual (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4b): "the team area shall be limited to squad members in full uniform and a maximum of 60 other individuals directly involved in the game. The 60 individuals not in full uniform shall wear special team area credentials." (Rule 1, Section 2, Article 4e): "No media personnel, including journalists, radio and television personnel, or their equipment, shall be in the team area or coaching box, and no media personnel shall communicate in any way with persons in the team area or coaching box."

The SEC also prohibits photographers/videographers from stopping and shooting from behind the bench area or into the bench area. The bench area at Williams-Brice Stadium is covered with a white tarp.

6. Photographers and videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.

7. Any individual regularly violating the sideline policy is subject to having their credential revoked. Revocation of the credential would be to the individual, not the outlet.

SEC Internet Real Time Policy

By acceptance and use of an SEC media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions for any and all athletic events hosted by the SEC and its member institutions:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(A) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes during the event.

(B) Videotape may only be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly scheduled news program.

(C) While a game is in progress, the use of statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

2. Any proposed media use on an Internet or online site of the game information that is more detailed and/or more than described above will require separate written authorization by the SEC and/or its member institutions. However, such written authorization will not permit the use of game information in entertainment contexts and will not authorize game coverage that, due to immediacy of detail, constitutes or approaches a play-by-play account of a game.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the SEC and/or its member institutions will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Championship. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.

Press Box

South Carolina's press box (P-2 level) opens three hours prior to kick. It has 144 seats in the main area, along with radio booths, coaches' booths, scoreboard, replay, public address and stadium operations/security booths. Located just above the press level is the photo deck. All members of the media covering the game are invited to a meal, which is served beginning two hours prior to kickoff. The broadcast television booth is located on the P-1 level.

Wireless internet is available for use. Wired outlets for photographers and videographers are available in the back of the press box.

The South Carolina press box is for the working media only. In accordance with the Football Writers Association of America, no cheering will be allowed.

In-Game Statistics

Media should utilize StatBroadcast for all the latest live statistical information during games. Visit gamecocks.statbroadcast.com for live scoring of all home football games. The password will be provided on game day. The Athletics Communications and Public Relations department supplies final team and individual statistics along with head coach and players' quotes.

Postgame Interviews

Both teams' postgame press conferences will take place in their respective media rooms. Coach Beamer will be available approximately 10 minutes after he leaves the playing field. Selected student-athletes will also be available in person following the cool-down period. No interviews, other than those conducted by the rightsholders, should be conducted on the field following the game.

Media Parking

Media parking is available in the Key Road parking lot, located southeast of Williams-Brice Stadium. Please contact Director of Athletics Communications Kent Reichert at 803-777-5257 or by email at kentr2@mailbox.sc.edu for any parking needs. Digital parking passes will be distributed in advance via mobile device.

Visiting Radio

The visitor's radio network must be designated by the opponent's athletics director. The visiting radio booth is located at the far north end of the P-2 level. Any non-designated stations will be admitted on a space-available basis. The Gamecock Sports Network will be handled by Learfield. Stations requesting information regarding the network should contact: Liz McMillan at (803) 777-8254.

Football Video Services

For information on receiving mid-week or postgame press conference videos, please contact Post Production Editor Mark Mixon at 843-858-1121 or at MIXONH@mailbox.sc.edu. Login information to the department's media FTP site will be provided. Please credit GamecocksOnline when using footage from the FTP site.

Live Broadcasts

It is not permissible for any non-rightsholder to broadcast over the air, stream over the internet (audio or video), or transmit in any other way, including social media apps, any live event without the consent of the University of South Carolina Athletics Department. Live events include varsity contests, press conferences (including but not limited to weekly scheduled and postgame press conferences) and any other group media availability. Exceptions may be made for any major news-breaking event and will be communicated prior to the event. No television live shots, with the exception of the rightsholder, may take place inside the stadium beginning 30 minutes prior to kickoff until the broadcast is concluded.

Non-Rightsholder Radio Appearances

South Carolina coaches will be limited to one appearance from one member of a sport's coaching staff per week on any radio station or any radio show that is aired as part of a state-wide, regional or national network in the Columbia market. The length of the interview should be no more than one segment, defined as "commercial-break to commercial-break." In addition, the same member of a sport's coaching staff or administrator cannot make appearances in consecutive weeks on the same radio station. Media outlets in which the institution or the SEC is contractually affiliated is exempt from this language. Exceptions can be made in the occurrence of a major "breaking news" event. Please work through the team's communications and public relations contact to help coordinate any request.

Game Day Media Availability

No University of South Carolina Athletics staff member may appear live on a non-rightsholder radio show during any Gamecock Radio Network-owned programming, including pre-game and post-game shows, live game action or coaches' call-in shows, without prior consent of Athletics Communications.

Gamecock Sports Properties, a partnership between the University of South Carolina Athletics Department and the country's leaders in the collegiate sports marketing industry, Learfield, is the originating medium for radio coverage of the South Carolina Gamecocks.

2025 marks the ninth year of a 10-year extension between the University and Learfield that runs through 2026. The extension adds to an agreement between the University of South Carolina and Learfield that dates to 2003. 2025 is also the fourth year of a five-year extension with Cumulus Media for WNKT-FM (107.5 The Game) to continue as the official flagship station of Gamecock Athletics.

Gamecock Sports Properties is responsible for the overall management of the athletics program's corporate partnership effort, which includes producing, selling and distributing the Gamecock Radio Network (live play-by-play and call-in shows) and coaches television shows, print advertising in various athletics department publications, and selected signage in university athletic facilities.

The Gamecock Sports Network from Learfield counts two dozen affiliate stations for the 2025-26 season. For Sirius/XM subscribers, follow the Gamecock Radio Twitter page for weekly updates on channel information for Gamecock broadcasts.

Todd Ellis, the all-time leading passer in Gamecock history, is in his 34th season with the network and his 23rd as the play-by-play voice of Carolina football. Ellis previously served as sideline reporter for the radio network and as a color analyst and play-by-play announcer for Comcast Sports Southeast for Gamecock telecasts. Ellis has also hosted the coaches television show and served on CBS's bowl game radio coverage. He hosts the Shane Beamer Television Show and Carolina Calls with Shane Beamer, the Coach's weekly radio call-in show. Ellis set more than 20 school passing marks during his career (1986-89) while throwing for 9,953 yards.

Tommy Suggs, a former standout Gamecock quarterback, is back for his 53rd year as color analyst for the radio network. Suggs played for Carolina from 1968-70 and is regarded as one of the school's all-time premier signal-callers. He led the Gamecocks to the 1969 ACC championship and Peach Bowl berth and was named MVP of the 1970 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. Suggs was inducted into the University's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1989 and is also a member of the state of South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. In 2012, friends and colleagues of Tommy and Jane Suggs established the Tommy Suggs Endowed Quarterback Scholarship to honor his long-time commitment to the University and Gamecock Athletics. The scholarship is awarded to a quarterback each year and was the first endowed scholarship for the football program.

Chet Tucker returns for his third season as the sideline reporter for the Network. Tucker is not new to Carolina Football, having previously served as a co-host for the network's pregame and postgame shows. Tucker was a placekicker/punter on the Carolina football squad in the late 1990s, including a stint as the starting placekicker at the end of the 1998 season while playing for head coach Brad Scott.

Liz McMillan serves as the Executive Director of Gamecock Sports Properties in Columbia, while Nick Kistler is the General Manager. David Spence is the spotter and Doug Adams is the statistician. Chris Miller returns for his seventh season hosting for the Network, participating throughout the six-hour gameday broadcast.

The weekly Carolina Calls show airs Thursdays from 7-8 p.m. on the flagship station of the Gamecocks, WNKT-FM, across the Palmetto State on the Gamecock Radio Network and over the Internet at GamecocksOnline.com. It is conducted live each week at Backstreets Grill, 2400 Devine Street.
